

Tiffany R. Warren

Senior Vice President and Chief Diversity Officer
Omnicom Group

As SVP, Chief Diversity Officer for Omnicom, Tiffany leads the strategy that enhances Omnicom's vision to be a world class, benchmark company for sustainable diversity and inclusion. She oversees a team focused on Omnicom-wide change efforts for the advancement and retention of top performing talent inclusive of women, people of color and the LGBTQIA community.

Recognized as a leader in the field of diversity, Tiffany is a talent strategist with 20+ years of championing diverse professionals. In 2005, she founded ADCOLOR, which has launched the ADCOLOR Industry Conference, ADCOLOR Awards and ADCOLOR University.

In addition to her roles with Omnicom and ADCOLOR, Tiffany serves on the boards for several organizations such as GLAAD, The AAF, and The Ghetto Film School. She is also a member of the 4A's Diversity Committee and chairs the AAF Mosaic Center Executive Council.
