

Executive Biography

Rollin Jin

General Manager
Printing Systems Group
HP CHINA

---

Rollin Jin is General Manager of HP's Printing Systems Group in China. He is responsible for leading the growth and expansion of HP laser printers, inkjet printers, supplies, office printing solutions, retail imaging and document management businesses in China.

A HP employee of 20 years, from 1993-2005 and from 2011 onwards, he has held various leadership roles in HP China, including Marketing Director for SMEs (Shanghai) and Marketing Director of Printing and Imaging Systems Group (Beijing and Shanghai). His most recent role was Vice President of HP Printing and Imaging Systems Group, China.

Rollin brings rich experience in industry management, efficient business operations and innovative marketing. From 2005-2011, Rollin served as a senior executive at several multinational companies. He was General Manager of Cisco-Linksys, responsible for the company's business expansion in China. He was also General Manager of New Development Zone and General Manager of Channels at Microsoft China, responsible for Microsoft's cross-sector business in 17 provinces and channel business in China.